

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

MICHAEL BILLET
SENIOR DIRECTOR, POLICY RESEARCH
EMPLOYMENT POLICY DIVISION

1615 H STREET, N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20062
202-463-5537

July 24, 2025

Lt. Col. J.D. Wiley USMC (Ret.)
Chief Operating Officer
Counter Human Trafficking Compliance Solutions
570 Lexington Avenue
Suite 2600
New York, New York 10022

Dear Lt. Colonel Wiley:

The U.S. Chamber of Commerce thanks Counter Forced Labor Technologies for sponsoring the Approaches to Combating Human Trafficking event and for helping make it a success.

The attendees enjoyed your overview of how the global risk assessment technology helps businesses examine forced labor in their supply chains. They also learned how the company uses data and analytics to discern how forced labor and sex trafficking intersect.

The U.S. Chamber looks forward to continuing our partnership.

Sincerely,

Michael Billet

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

MICHAEL BILLET
SENIOR DIRECTOR, POLICY RESEARCH
EMPLOYMENT POLICY DIVISION

1615 H STREET, N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20062
202-463-5537

July 24, 2025

Mr. Dave Myers
Senior Vice President, Strategic Planning & Business Development
Counter Forced Labor Technologies
570 Lexington Avenue
Suite 2600
New York, New York 10022

Dear Mr. Myers:

Thank you for moderating the Technology for Good panel at the Approaches to Combating Human Trafficking event.

The audience appreciated hearing how advanced technology that tracks supply chains and provides solutions to businesses can prevent the exploitation of vulnerable individuals.

They also heard how Counter Forced Labor Technologies uses data and analytics to understand how forced labor and sex trafficking intersect.

The U.S. Chamber is grateful for your organization's sponsorship of the event and looks forward to continuing our partnership.

Sincerely,

Michael Billet

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

MICHAEL BILLET
SENIOR DIRECTOR, POLICY RESEARCH
EMPLOYMENT POLICY DIVISION

1615 H STREET, N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20062
202-463-5537

July 24, 2025

Charity Morsey
Research Analyst
Counter Forced Labor Technologies
570 Lexington Avenue
Suite 2600
New York, New York 10022

Dear Ms. Morsey:

Thank you for moderating the panel discussion with Dr. Kari Johnstone and the Honorable Cindy Dyer at the Approaches to Combating Human Trafficking event on July 21.

During your conversation, attendees enjoyed hearing about the intersection of domestic and international law as well as how geopolitics impacts human trafficking.

They also appreciated hearing how Counter Forced Labor Technologies uses data and analytics to understand how forced labor and sex trafficking intersect.

The U.S. Chamber is grateful for your organization's sponsorship of the event and looks forward to continuing our partnership.

Sincerely,

Michael Billet

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

MICHAEL BILLET
SENIOR DIRECTOR, POLICY RESEARCH
EMPLOYMENT POLICY DIVISION

1615 H STREET, N.W.
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20062
202-463-5537

July 24, 2025

Mr. Hugo Bernard
Head of Business Development
CFL Canada Business Development, LLC
Counter Forced Labor Technologies
570 Lexington Avenue
Suite 2600
New York, New York 10022

Dear Mr. Bernard:

Thank you for moderating the panel discussion with Alex Greco and Nate Herman at the Approaches to Combating Human Trafficking event on July 21.

During the conversation, the attendees enjoyed learning about the intersection of domestic and international law, particularly how businesses are complying with S-211. In addition, they learned how Counter Forced Labor Technologies uses data and analytics to assist companies map their supply chains.

The U.S. Chamber is grateful for your organization's sponsorship of the event and looks forward to continuing our partnership.

Sincerely,

Michael Billet